

Asphodelus (Asphodelus albus)

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 19 May 2011 05:28 -

The tubers are antidermatotoxic, detergent, emollient and vulnerary. They are mainly used externally in the treatment of skin conditions and for lightening freckles. They have also been employed internally as a cough remedy. Use internally with caution, especially if you are suffering from nephritis or gastritis.